

CALL FOR NOMINATION / PARTICIPATION

SGN-SSN Publication Award 2019

Prize for the best Nephrology Original Article published by an SGN-SSN member in 2018

The SGN-SSN Publication Award will be presented at the SGN-SSN Congress 2019 for the eighth time. This prize is supported by a generous grant of Otsuka Pharmaceutical (Switzerland) GmbH and shall honor the best Nephrology Original Article in clinical and/or basic research published the year before (publication date 2018).

In order to participate, the first author, the last author (senior author) or the corresponding author needs to be a member of the SGN-SSN. The winner will be invited to give a short oral presentation about the selected work at a plenary session of the Congress and will receive a CHF 5'000.00 prize.

To submit a publication for this contest (see selection criteria above), please send a pdf file of the article and a short text (max. 200 words - word file) explaining why you think that the jury should choose it, to the office of the SGN-SSN (office@swissnephrology.ch).

Deadline of submission will be September 15th, 2019 (midnight). The best publication will be chosen by the SGN-SSN Scientific Commission. The winner will be informed at the beginning of November.

We do look forward to receiving many interesting publications!
